

Suction Lances

Technical data:

- Integrated drip protection - no leakage of liquids.
- Adjustable immersion depth - to adapt to your container size.
- Optional integrated float switch.
- Individual solutions of connection, mounting, material and functionality.
- Up to 2 switching points as N.O contact, N.C contact or changeover contact.
- Various materials such as stainless steel, PVC, PP, PVDF are available.

Application:

- Use of Engler suction lances in almost all kind of fluids.
- Suction of liquids from containers, tanks, canisters, barrels etc.
- Dry running protection for your pump through integrated float switch.
- The suction lances are used in the areas of cleaning systems such as. Industrial washing machines. Further applications: container construction, dosing technology, chemical sector ...
- Due to their compact design, Engler suction lances are suitable for almost all dosing systems and containers
- Individual requirements in terms of material, connection, mounting and suction capacity can be tailored to your needs.

Link Website:

<https://www.engler-msr.com/products/suction-pipe>